

SOCIETY

The annual May Day festival will be carried out at Neighborhood House, 470 N. Street, Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, May 1, 2, 3, from 10 to 12 o'clock each day. The program is a rather pretentious one, but with the summer playground needing money to keep it open, the dramatic talent will be at its best, and has been well developed by Mrs. Neligh and those in charge.

The first day's program will be a pantomime play and the crowning of the May Queen, by the Mount Vernon Seminary Kindergarten, the children representing fairies, flowers, butterflies, birds, bees, and other winged creatures. Masque of the Children of Fairy Land, will be given by the Golden Rule Club, and to finish a May Day pole dance by English Shepherdesses.

At 8 o'clock, there will be May Revels by Robin Hood and his band, the True Americans and White Eagle Club.

When the pageant opens Friday there will be a ceremonial procession, pageants and plays celebrating the return of spring. The May dances of various nations will be represented. England—decorating, setting up the May pole; and Morris dances, by Astor and Blumont clubs; crowning of the May Queen, and May pole dances; May Day customs of France, Germany, Sweden, Holland, and America, all carried out by the girls club. In the evening, there will be presented the play of Merry Mount, by the Pleasure Club Girls.

Saturday will be particularly interesting as the Government has lent the United States Engineer Band. The Goddess of Spring will appear followed by rabbits, bears and frogs, and other features.

Saturday evening will be the grand finale when a most remarkable fairy play will be presented, dramatized by Eugenia Paul Jefferson, with music by Mrs. S. B. Duffie, Hansel and Gretel, presented by the Neighborhood Peace Club.

The revenue from the sale of tickets will go to keeping open the playground for the little children who are denied long country trips.

The Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Daniels will be guests of Prof. and Mrs. Elphalet F. Andrews at a studio breakfast at their home in Sixteenth street tomorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hays Hammond will entertain twenty guests at dinner tonight in honor of the Russian Ambassador and Madame Bakmeteff.

The Postmaster General and Mrs. Burleson were guests at dinner last night of Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Glasco, at their home in Woodley lane, Chevy Chase. Their other guests included Senator Thornton of Louisiana, Miss Thornton, Judge and Mrs. Robb, Dr. and Mrs. J. Ryan Devereaux, Mr. O'Reilly, Mrs. O'Reilly, Congressman H. Garland Dupre of Louisiana, and Thomas Ruffin.

William Henry, Capt. and Mrs. Robert Ralston, Mrs. Andrew Y. Bradley, Miss Alice Shepard, Mr. and Mrs. Gould Lincoln, Lieutenant Garlington, Lieutenant Russell, and Robert Krogstad.

Among the hosts entertaining dinner parties at the Chevy Chase Club last night were Col. and Mrs. Harry Taylor, whose chief guests were Captains and Mrs. Robbins, of Washington Barracks; Mr. and Mrs. Wade Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fitch Shepard, Mrs. I. T. Mann, Congressman and Mrs. Culp, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hagner, Mrs. Beale Howard, Mrs. Alexander Britton, Captain and Mrs. Archibald, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Noyes, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Willert and Mr. and Mrs. McChord and Miss McChord.

Carter, Mrs. Daniel Thew Wright, Mrs. Jesse C. Adkins, Mrs. James E. Martin, Mrs. Daniel W. Baker and Mrs. John Doyle Carmody.

The ball committee is composed of Thomas M. Murn, chairman; Pierce B. Luerich, David A. Hart, Edward M. O'Herron, Harry A. Grant, Paul H. Lynch and Frank A. Hostet.

Commissioner and Mrs. Fred Dennett have had as guests for the past ten days Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Dennett, of Sheboygan, Wis., and Dr. and Mrs. Barrett, for whom a number of entertainments were given during their visit.

Washington society is having its first real upset incidental to the entertainment of official society. The departure of the Secretary of State for the Pacific Coast, and of the Secretary of the Navy, for North Carolina, have changed the plans of several dinner hosts.

The Brazilian Ambassador and Senora laGama gave the dinner last night which was planned in honor of the Secretary of State, without Mr. Bryan. Mrs. Bryan, however, attended. Mr. and Mrs. Elbert H. Gary, who were to have come for the dinner, were detained in New York by illness. President's Family Will Have Active Part in Social Events of This Week

Mrs. Wilson and Daughters to Attend Ball for Benefit of the Ohio Sufferers.

THERE is scarcely an important event of the coming week, social or philanthropic, in which some member of the President's family will not figure.

Last night Mrs. Wilson, accompanied by her house guests, Mr. and Mrs. George McL. Harper and Miss Bones, occupied a box at Polk's to see the stock company in the quaint English play, "Pomander Walk."

Miss Margaret Wilson is in New York for a short visit, and Miss Jessie Wilson was last night the guest at dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Henry White.

Commander and Mrs. Chandler have taken as a home the place built by the late General Flagler and later occupied by General and Mrs. Sternburg. In addition to the charm of the house, there are galleries overhung with vines and flowers and a large old fashioned garden which, if the weather is fine, will play no inconspicuous part in the reception of the four hundred invited guests.

MISS RUTH TRIBBLE.

Congressman and Mrs. Samuel J. Tribble, of Athens, Ga., announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ruth Tribble, to Samuel Kenney Dick, of Atlanta, Ga., the wedding to take place June 19, at the First Presbyterian Church, in Athens. Miss Tribble is well known in Washington and is popular socially here, as she is in her Southern home. Her father is one of the senior members of Congress from his State and comes from a distinguished stock, as does also the family of Mr. Dick.

Mrs. Tribble and Miss Tribble left Washington today for Athens, where they will remain until after the wedding.

The Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Lane and the Secretary of Agriculture and Mrs. Houston met six or seven hundred people prominent in the official and private society of Washington at a reception last night, when Mrs. James R. Garfield, wife of the former Secretary of the Interior, Mrs. Charles Boughton Wood, Mrs. James Montgomery, of Oregon, and Miss Morgan.

Mrs. Robert Bacon and Miss Bacon, who came to Washington and stopped at the Shoreham for the Meyer-Rodgers wedding, have returned to New York.

The women of the Parish Aid Society of the Church of the Ascension will give a bazaar and tea on Thursday, May 1, afternoon and evening, in the parish hall.

Mrs. G. Huntington Williams, of Baltimore, has arrived in Washington and is spending several weeks at the Shoreham Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. John S. Lawrence, of Boston, Mass., have arrived at the Shoreham Hotel to spend some time. They were guests at the Meyer-Rodgers wedding yesterday.

Entertainments Are Planned for New Ambassador From English Court.

Sir Cecil Spring Rice, the new ambassador of Great Britain to this country, is expected to arrive in Washington tomorrow accompanied by Alfred Mitchell Innes, counselor of the embassy, who met him on his arrival in New York.

One of the first entertainments given in honor of the new ambassador will be the dinner which Col. and Mrs. Robert M. Thompson have arranged for him on May 10.

Only a short time will elapse after the arrival of the ambassador before he presents his credentials as the President established a new precedent in receiving the Austrian ambassador in so short a time after he reached Washington.

For several years past, the reception of an ambassador seemed rather a minor matter, and considerable embarrassment was caused the foreigners in having the matter delayed, the Italian ambassador, Marquis Casoni Confalonieri, was quite worried, as his many friends in Washington insisted on entertaining him while he, on the other hand, felt that he must not accept invitations until officially recognized by the President.

However, these matters are sometimes the fault of the diplomats themselves, as one of the ambassadors sent from Turkey could not present his credentials to the President because the courtesy of his country demanded his wearing court uniform, and in bringing over his "trunk," an epaulet was lost from his coat of state. Some one round about the State Department got tired of waiting for the bauld, and his excellency was presented with just one shoulder ornament and as many decorations as possible to balance the other side.

It is understood that, during the absence of the ambassador from the embassy this summer, many changes will be made in the residence.

Miss I. T. Mann will entertain a luncheon party at the Chevy Chase Club on Thursday.

Mrs. N. Peyer and Mrs. Julius Peyer, are spending the week end in Newport News, Va., as the guests of Mrs. William Garner.
